HARTS NURSERY OF JEFFERSON

Past & Present

In the 1960's Charles and Margaret Hart began selling the flowers and vegetables that they grew in a small roadside stand. Their plants supplied local Jefferson area gardeners for years.

In 1968 Harts Nursery opened on the same property where they began. From that first greenhouse grew the largest wholesale bedding nursery in Oregon.

Today 56 years later, Glen Hart and Doug Hart are continuing the family tradition. Harts Nursery is now a specialty grower, growing a variety of flowers and flowering baskets for multiple large chains in Oregon, Washington, and Utah.
